

“Challenges to the Contemporary World Order” Workshop

Filzbach, 6-7 October 2017

Organized by Tom Pepinsky (Cornell University) and Stefanie Walter (University of Zurich)

Program

Friday, 6 October 2017

- 2:00 - 2:15pm      Welcome
- 2:15 – 3:45 pm      Embedded Liberalism under Fire
 Kathleen McNamara    Constructing Economic Interests: Geography, Culture, & the Liberal International Order
 Tom Pepinsky            Re-embedding Liberal Internationalism
- 3:45 – 4:15pm      \** Coffee break ****
- 4:15pm-6:30pm      Challenges for Democracy
 Catherine de Vries      Waning Public Support for International Cooperation? Some Lessons from Europe
 Stefanie Walter          National votes with international consequences. A democratic threat to cooperation?
 B. Peter Rosendorff     Globalization and the Erosion of Liberal Democracy
- 7:30pm              \** Dinner ****

Saturday, 7 October 2017

- 8:30-10:45 am      Economic Policy Challenges
 Ben Ansell              Wealth Inequality beyond Piketty
 Mark Copelovitch        This Time Should Have Been Different: The Causes and Consequences of Macroeconomic Policy Failure in the Great Recession
 Layna Mosley             Still Afraid of Footloose Finance? Exit and Voice in Contemporary Globalization
- 10:45 – 11:15 am    \** Coffee break ****
- 11:15 – 12:45pm     Foreign Policy Challenges: Europe and the US
 Frank Schimmelfennig    Between the Devil and the Deep Blue Sea: Governments in European Integration
 James Morrison          Bound to Not Lead: 2016 as Unexceptional Americanism
- 12:45 pm              \** Lunch ****
- 2pm – 5:30pm        Walk & Talk (hiking tour)
- 6:00-7:00Pm         Wrap-Up
- 7:30pm              \** Dinner ****

